3 scenarios of the conference

Due to the COVID pandemic there are different options regarding how the conference can take place, depending on the measures taken by the Dutch government in October 2022.

1. First case scenario; This scenario includes a conference with no additional COVID-19 restrictions.
2. Second case scenario; In this scenario, it may be required to adhere to extra restrictions (e.g. obligated masks and 1.5m). It is a possibility that the conference will only take place for students from schools within The Netherlands. In this case it will be explicitly communicated before the conference begins.
3. Third case scenario; In this scenario, where there is no physical conference possible, the conference will not move into an online format. Unfortunately, LmunA 2022 will be canceled.
