The LmunA conference is a non-profit conference. However, there are a great number of costs connected to the organisation of the conference. We therefore have to ask for a fee.

MUN Director	€ 45 (this includes a badge, folder, placard, the party, the lunches, etc)

Dress Code

As LmunA is a simulation of the United Nations, all participants are expected to dress appropriately. This means that the dress code is formal. Every attending participant should be dressed formally and appropriately, this includes the following. Participants should always wear a jacket, shirt and tie, participants can also choose to wear dresses and skirts, which should have an appropriate length. They cannot be shorter than three fingers above the knee. Cleavage should not be one hand under the collarbone. Sneakers and jeans are prohibited. If participants are dressed inappropriately, they will be requested to change clothing. Scarves and clothing worn for religious reasons are permitted.

Disclaimer: The Organizing Committee always reserves the right to ask to change clothing if they feel the dress code is violated.

Smoking, Alcohol and Drugs

The usage of (electronic) cigarettes, cigars, alcohol and other drugs is strictly forbidden during the entire conference. This includes the conference at the Lorentz Lyceum, as well as the party and the StOff/Staff dinner.

Party

The party will be held in the Velp, at the venue 'Venue 13'. It will start at 20:00 and end at 00:00. Do note that doors close at 21:30 sharp. The dress code for the party is 'Glamorous Mafia' (Please note that we will not be allowing any type of (fake) weapon, so keep this in mind when picking out your outfit). In order to enter the party, everyone has to bring their ticket and badge. For further information, see the itinerary in the back of the booklet.
